OVER THE SANDS.

Meeting of Osiris Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine

AT ARION HALL LAST NIGHT.

Nine Candidates were Taken on the Sentimental Journey Across the Burning Desert, and Initiated into the Mysteries of the Order—Many Members of the Organization from Abroad Assist in Torturing the Lambs—An Impromptu Musical Precedes the Exercises.

Did you ever go over the burning sands?

That is the real, sun-scorched, superheated sands that the Shriners always have on tap when they accompany candidates anxious to pierce their mysteries across the desert? If you never have gone on this sentimental voyage you can't appreciate "that tired feeling" those who were initiated last night are experiencing this morning.

At Arion hall last evening Osiris Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of this city put a number of candidates through the paces, assisted by a number of visiting Shriners from Pittsburgh, New York, Fairmont, Grafton, Charleston and Bellaire.

During the early hours of the evening the Shriners gathered in the Arion parlors, and among the visiting members of the order, were: John M. Collins and George Davis, Charleston; George B. Pharr and Andrew Brown, New York city; Dr. J. H. Brownfield, Alex. Bebout, C. L. Skinner, George De Bolt and F. E. Nichols, Fairmont; R. W. Kennedy and O. C. Jeffreys, Grafton; M. L. Blackburn, John D. Rankin, J. M. Oberman and T. F. Strahl, Bellaire, O.; J. G. Splane, H. L. Scraftford, A. J. Gaskill and A. H. Fleming, Pittsburgh; T. R. West and C. A. Shanor, Sistersville.

During the informal reception held in the parlors the gathering was entertained with some choice musical selections rendered by Mrs. Peebles Tatum, Mrs. Kate Fitzgerald and Mr. Charles Zulauf. Mr. Joseph Rhee fulfilled all the requirements of accompanist.

When the hour of 11 o'clock arrived the signal was given for the "trouble to begin," and the lambs who were to be sacrificed were led to the upper chamber, where, in the awful secrecy of that chamber, the esoteric rites of the Shriners were practiced upon them.

The victims who went over the burning sands were: J. Shriver Woods, Elm Grove; George B. Peabody, John Beckett and Joseph E. Dudley, Wheeling; W. J. Cole, Sistersville; U. S. Kendall and G. F. Carrell, Fairmont; H. H. Fogle, Bridgeport, O.; B. P. Ramage, Clarksville.

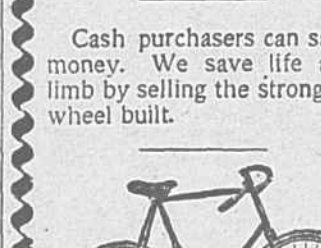

It was an early hour this morning before the work of initiating the candidates was finished and the company sat down to an elegant supper furnished by Ziegenfelder. Several informal speeches were made and a general good time was had, such as only the Shriners know how to have.

ROBBERY AT PALATINE.

A Store Broken Into and the Safe Tapped for More than $1,000.

Last night four gentlemen here attending the Shriners' meeting it was learned that a big robbery occurred at Palatine, across the river from Fairmont, on Thursday night. Thieves entered the store of Orr & Pople, blew open the safe and secured over $1,000 in notes and $60 in currency. In addition the thieves took, as near as can be ascertained, about $75 in merchandise. There is no clue to the robbers, although, as there are many tramps about Palatine, it is thought some of them are concerned in the robbery.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES

Meet and Arrange for the Conduct of the Primaries.

The candidates for nomination for the various offices to be voted for, at the Republican primaries on April 23, or at least the big majority of them, met at the rooms of the board of commissioners yesterday afternoon for the purpose of formulating some definite arrangements in regard to the conduct of the election. Dr. D. H. Taylor was selected chairman of the conference and George W. Robinson secretary. In all there were nineteen candidates present.

The following resolution was the subject of an interesting discussion, an earnest minority combatting it with some vigor.

Resolved, That the county committee be requested to distribute the ballots at the Republican primary election on the 23d of April through the judges of the various precincts alone, and that said ballots be given to voters only after the polls have opened and at the time the voter desires to cast his vote, and that the general election law regarding the sixty feet limit be enforced.

This resolution was finally adopted by a vote of fifteen to four. The other resolution passed requested the county committee to determine the position of the candidates on the ticket by lot. The president and secretary were authorized to submit the action of the candidates to the county committee. Of course it is understood that this action is not binding on the county committee, being merely the expression of the wishes of the candidates. The committee will take action on the matter at its next meeting.
